RUSH OF SUGAR SEASON IS OVER

The big rush of the sugar season is over. The warehouses that for several months past have been crowded to the limit are now practically empty, and a week or two more will about clean them up. The bulk of the sugar left will then be transferred from cars or steamers directly to the vessels of the sugar fleet.

The barkentine Archer sailed yesterday afternoon with 1400 tons of sugar. Sugar vessels remaining in port are the Coronado, the St. Katherine, the Irmgard and the George Curtis. The Coronado will get away about Friday, the St. Katherine about Monday and the Irmgard three or four days later. All will carry full loads. The Alameda tomorrow will carry 10,000 sacks of refined and 2900 of raw sugar.

With this the Oceanic warehouse will be about cleaned up. It has now 26,700 sacks. The Railway wharf warehouses are almost empty. All of Castle & Cooke's sugar that was stored in these warehouses has been cleaned up and by the end of next week all of Hackfeld's will also be loaded in the vessels. Then for the first time in four months the big Railway warehouses will be empty.

TYPHOID IN KOHALA

(Special to The Bulletin)

Kohala, Hawaii, July 14.—Typhoid fever has been and is still spreading in South Kohala. The first case was Deputy Sheriff Lindsay, which lasted six weeks. The spread of this disease is supposed to have been caused from the washing of a patient's soiled linen along the banks of the Puukapu stream, and it is in this vicinity that there are so many patients at the present time. Fortunately enough for those who live above this portion of this stream—these have escaped. Another stream that is also supposed to be contaminated is that flowing direct behind Mr. Lindsay's house, for those people who obtain their drinking and washing water from that stream have also been attacked, and those who live above his house have escaped.

Dr. Atcherley of North Kohala who has been attending on some twelve or more cases made his first report in June. A Porto Rican who was acting as chamber-boy at Mr. Lindsay's house was struck down with the same disease and it was some two weeks before the doctor saw him. Bronchitis had already developed and was at its worst. The boy died a week after.

As far as it is known there has been one death and there is still four patients along this vicinity, and ten along the Puukapu stream vicinity. Three have recovered. One died last Monday, David Kaanaana. He was down with typhoid some ten days before Dr. Atcherley was called and then he was too weak, the disease having the hold of his system.

Dr. Atcherley was petitioned by South Kohala residents to return as Government physician. Along with the five reports of typhoid last week he sent in his application to the Board of Health at Honolulu. On Tuesday, the 11th inst., a wireless was sent to the Board of Health by S. M. Spencer of Waiman, recommending Dr. Atcherley. The result was the appointment of Dr. Buffet of Panahau, Hanalei, who was recommended by Mr. Vredenberg of Puako plantation.

It is to be hoped that the South Kohala district is in good hands as it was previous to 1904, and that the further spread of this typhoid epidemic will soon be checked by the newly appointed health officer.

Dr. Atcherley is at present in Waiman, South Kohala, having been called for a week's stay at Mrs. S. M. Spencer's. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer's little son Harry is down with typhoid. At last report he is doing very well. His cousin, Ross Spencer, Jr., is also down with typhoid. This little fellow is also recovering. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Spencer, Sr., of North Kohala, are with their son Ross at S. M. Spencer's, Waiman.

ONE STORY OF HOW IT HAPPENED IN KOHALA

Editor Evening Bulletin:—We see by your issue of the 27th of June how the Republicans of this district kindly lent their aid in assisting the Democrats to win at the polls on the last election.

There may be some excuse to the actions of these Republicans. For what can we expect after the Chief Republican of the Territory, Gov. G. R. Carter, has given the first lesson of the Bible. He worked and fought for someone he wanted, Wm. Henry, Civic Fed, therefore this is a case of a fox and the geese. The Kohala Republicans wanted any body that they could get in over Dr. J. Atcherley. The other candidate was Supervisor J. F. Woods, a Democrat, and for the Democrats the Republicans had to work and win if they can, and they had to work hard too. The only Republican that stood by his party perhaps can be mentioned that is H. L. Holstein.

It is very comical and the laugh is very tickling, how hard the fight was to get the successful candidate to win and the different schemes used in the stumping speeches by J. F. Woods and his followers against Atcherley.

First—That Atcherley was too superior a physician to lose from the Kohalas, that in electing him and should be on duty at Hilo, an epidemic would come into the Kohalas—there would be no physician to save the Hawaiians. This had no effect.

Second—Then, that Atcherley was a poor man, that it should be a rich man to represent the Kohalas such as J. P. Woods. This had no effect.

Third—That Atcherley was a candidate put up by Governor Carter, because his candidacy was no good, he was not a citizen, once elected, Governor Carter would have the chance of putting his own man in place of Atcherley. This created laughter and made no effect.

Fourth—That Atcherley was the plantation manager's candidate, that Merseberg was overthrown for Atcherley and the reasons that the latter had a white skin similar to those of the rich managers and that Atcherley would do all he could to benefit the rich people and ignore the poor Hawaiians. This tale touched and it was then that the natives' feelings were moved. The Hawaiians fear the plantation managers of North Kohala. They claim that the road laborers have been only paid at 50 cents, 60 cents and 80 cents a day, whereas the Government allows them $1.00 a day by law. The late Road Board have also given the work to Porto Ricans, etc., and boys under the voting age, giving very few voting men the chance of getting any work.

The Hawaiians saw that Dr. Atcherley was a man interested in the success and getting ahead of the Hawaiian people. They chose him as candidate and it was the above last lying scheme put up by J. F. Woods and his followers that turned the voters against the doctor. They, in the first, had great confidence that the doctor would see that justice was given them in the future, and so he should, had he been the successful candidate.

There is every reason the voters of this district should receive their legal pay for working on the government roads since the law was passed in 1903 by the Legislature. If no move is made now, a day will come when these very road supervisors, should they continue to hold office, will only pay the road laborers 25 cents a day.

IS FULL OF MUTINY

AMERICAN OFFICER TALKS OF RUSSIAN CONDITIONS

SAYS PEACE TALK IS ONLY TO ENABLE LINEVITCH TO GAIN TIME AND ADDITIONAL TROOPS FOR WAR.

Vallejo, July 1.—One of the leading naval officers on Mare Island who has been on the scene of one of the naval conflicts in the Orient spoke to one of the officials today on the subject of the mutiny. This American naval officer is of high rank and consented only to tell "The Examiner" man the result of his conference on condition that his name be not used. He said:

"This outbreak did neither surprise myself nor the people with whom I spoke. Affairs in the Russian army and navy are in terrible shape. We all agree that if the warships which are part of the Black Sea squadron and are headed for Odessa should join the Potemkin in its mutiny it will put Russia in a terrible plight. This Black Sea squadron contains her best sea fighters.

"I was on the territory traversed by Linevitch when abroad and within a short time of the Rojstevsky fight. You can little imagine the dissatisfaction among the troops. I am not surprised at defeat succeeding defeat. The Russian army is one of the most disorganized in the world, and in this one member of the British Embassy agrees. The men, surely enough, are a happy-go-lucky sort of a lot, but there is no organization. This exists in the navy, as well. One Japanese is worth five Russians. One Japanese warship is worth five of their foes.

"The Russians are endeavoring to effect an armistice. The crew here knows it. But Japan recognizes that it is only to give Linevitch time to wriggle out of the trap into which he has gone and to gain reinforcements from home. Japan has no notions that her terms of peace will be accepted by the Czar's plenipotentiaries.

"Among the upper classes—the officers—there is a system of graft and the rank know of it.

"An order was issued yesterday forbidding any person on board the Lena in the future. This order will be effective until after the mutiny is settled.

"On Independence Day the crew of the Lena will march in the parade in Vallejo with the crews of the warships now anchored at Mare Island and the cadets on the trainship Independence."

BROWN IS NOMINATED.

Editor Evening Bulletin:—Kohala has just received the news that Governor Carter has resigned from his Throne. So far as we have been able to ascertain there have been no expressions of extreme regret at the occurrence.

Certainly the destruction of Mr. Hatter's accusations against Brown and Chillingworth show how very easily he allowed himself to be imposed on by that brilliant detective and many here know of other cases where he has allowed himself to be victimized by other impostors. There has been sympathies felt in this district for the victims and we think that the verdict pronounced in favor of Mr. Brown at the election shows pretty plainly what Oahu thinks about the matter. A Governor who always listens to any story against an official and condemns that official without giving him a chance of explanation cannot expect any regret to be expressed at his resignation. The next move is, set aside the sheriff post to Chillingworth and endorse A. M. Brown for Governor. Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.
